This has seen many young Kenyans between the ages of 26 and 34 who turn up for recruitment every year in the hope of being selected and earning huge sums of money. Some are also struggling to join the national youth service so as to be on the highest point in the KDF selection arena, which has seen many of them selected into the forces successfully. This is because most of the recruitment priorities are given to fresh young people by the National Youth Service. In fact, military or defence forces play an important role in this context in any country. They guarantee security and protect the borders of a country, among other things. Defence forces are a measure of a country's political and military power. This explains why no one of the country's government on this globe pays their team defense forces. In Kenya, the salary scales of the Kenyan Defence Forces vary largely by rank. Other secondary factors include education and years of experience. KDF members are always exposed to serious risks, especially when they go outside mission boundaries. All these risks see them with nice bonuses that inflate their salaries. READ: Updated Kenya Police Salary Scales according to their Ranks 2021 Recently, the salaries of Kenya's defence forces were increased by 2.5 billion. The highest employee KDF is the head of the defence forces (which is in the highest possible degree that you can reach in forces and earn Kshs.
