I know that cemetery restoration is potentially hazardous activity. I should not undertake the duties unless I am medically able and properly trained. I also know that, although first aide will be available, there may be open holes, potential hazardous areas throughout the assigned areas and I must watch for these hazards. I also assume any and all other risks associated with this effort including but not limited to falls, contact with other participants, the effects of weather including high heat and/or humidity and the condition of the cemetery. I understand that portable listening device prohibited during the clean up event, in that it may create a distraction which may increase my risk of injury. And that I am to stay with my assigned group at all times, I further understand that I am not to leave the group to explore any part of the cemetery without prior permission.

Knowing these facts, I hereby for myself, my heirs, executors, administrators or anyone else who might claim on my behalf, covenant not to sue, and waive, release, and discharge any persons and organizations associated with the Cemetery, Virginia Roots, Veronica A. Davis, and the local governments and police, volunteers, and any and all sponsors including their agents, employees, assigns or anyone acting on their behalf, from any and all claims or causes of action (known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen) for death, personal injury or property damage of any kind or nature including those arising out of, their negligence in the course of, my participation in the clean up efforts and all other events and activities associated with this restoration.

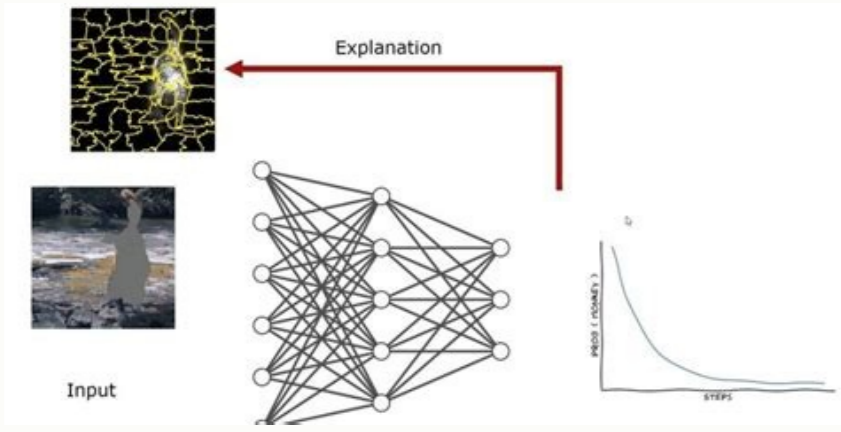

I agree that the Cemetery, Virginia Roots, Veronica A. Davis and other authorized officials have the right to remove me from the premises if they are of the opinion that it is in my best interest or that of the restoration, the organizers, and its partners.

I further grant permission to Cemetery, Virginia Roots, Veronica A. Davis and other authorized officials and/or agents authorized by them to use any photographs, videotapes, motion pictures, recordings, or any other record of this event for any purpose without limitation or compensation.

I have read the foregoing and certify my agreement with my signature below
