B or C. Only ONE answer is correct. I remember it like yesterday. We were all waiting for my father to come home from the race track.

He promised me and my sister that if he won, he would take us all to Rige Playland Amusement Park. The minutes felt like hours. It was the longest hour of my life. Then, finally, we heard the car door shut. Me and my sister ran to the front door anxiously waiting for the news. He opened the door and walked in. We tried to read the expression on his face but of course he was looking down while taking his trainers off. The suspense was killing us. Then he looked up. No words were spoken between us and our father. He just gave us a blank stare. I didn't know what to think. I was scared to ask because I was so worried of the response. It was that moment when he said to us, "Well kids, pick out what you are going to wear to Rye Playland this weekend." Excitement just jumped throughout my whole body. We both ran over and gave him the biggest hug and ran upstairs to pick out what we were going to bring with us. I was so excited for the next two days that I probably only got about 4 hours' sleep. Then the day finally came. It was Saturday. It was the only time in my life I was happy to hear the alarm clock go off. Of course I had already been awake for two hours before it actually went off, but I waited anyway. I jumped out of bed and ran into my sister's room. We both then leaped into bed with our parents to wake them up. They acted like they didn't know what we were talking about, but we didn't give them the chance
